Red Wines

THE UNTOUCHABLES CABERNET
Red Wine from San Juan, Argentina (4.0)
The deep reddish color of the Los Intocables Cabernet Sauvignon is complemented by dark hues. Its innovative production process, which includes aging the wine in bourbon barrels, imparts notes of chocolate and honey. On the palate, the medium toast reveals flavors of vanilla and roasted peppers.
Bottle of wine / $210.000

TARAPACÁ MERLOT
Red Wine from Valle Central, Chile (3.6)
A bright reddish hue with aromas of plums and cherries, complemented by spicy and herbal notes and a subtle toasted finish. The medium body offers smooth, well-structured tannins, making it an ideal match for meats, pizzas, pastas, and fatty fish.
Glass of wine / $35.000 | Bottle of wine / $150.000

LAS MORAS MALBEC
Red Wine from San Juan, Argentina (3.9)
A full-bodied wine with aromas of ripe red fruits and plums, highlighted by vanilla notes from its aging in oak. It's the perfect complement to pastas with mushroom sauce, roasted meats, and aged cheeses.
Glass of wine / $40.000 | Bottle of wine / $165.000

JOEL GOTT PINOT NOIR
Red Wine from Santa Barbara County, USA (3.8)
Delicious berry flavors with subtle spice notes, velvety tannins, and a long, elegant finish. It pairs beautifully with white meats like chicken, seafood, and even lamb.
Bottle of wine / $290.000

RAMÓN BILBAO CRIANZA
Red Wine from Rioja, Spain (3.9)
Aromas of nut shells and floral notes, with the barrel adding sweet spice, nutmeg, vanilla, and hints of cinnamon. It pairs wonderfully with white meats, soft cheeses, and fish.
Bottle of wine / $200.000

White Wines

MICHEL TORINO TORRONTÉS
White Wine from Valle Calchaquíes, Argentina (3.7)
This wine reflects the dedication of a pioneering family in the Argentine wine industry. The varietal collection line fully expresses the terroir and fruit. Young with good structure, it presents vivid and intense colors, fresh and fruity aromas, and a pleasantly fruity taste.
Glass of wine / $35.000 | Bottle of wine / $150.000

LEYDA SAUVIGNON
White Wine from Leyda Valley, Chile (3.9)
A vibrant wine with aromas of quince, green apple, lemon zest, pink grapefruit, mango, and white flowers. On the palate, it offers exquisite acidity, balanced freshness, and a comforting mineral finish. Perfect with crispy grilled salmon, oysters, or chorizo marinera.
Bottle of wine / $210.000

MEMORO PICCINT
White Wine from Tuscany, Italy (3.7)
A pale wine with bright green edges, featuring aromas of tree fruits, lime peel, and a hint of honey. On the palate, it's fresh and smooth with notes of pear and white and yellow flowers, finishing with a medium-long finish. Perfect for pairing with pastas, pizzas, or seafood.
Glass of wine / $40.000 | Bottle of wine / $160.000

COUSIÑO MACUL CHARDONNAY
White Wine from Maipo Valley, Chile (3.4)
A young, vibrant wine with pronounced characteristics, showcasing the full expression of the grape. Its pale yellow color with greenish hues leads to aromatic notes of white fruits, buttery textures, and hints of pine. On the palate, it's firm with caramel touches, low alcohol, and a fresh, flavorful finish balanced by a refreshing acidity. Ideal for pairing with seafood, pizza, or goat cheese.
Glass of wine / $40.000 | Bottle of wine / $160.000

MAR DE FRADES ALBARIÑO
White Wine
An aromatic white wine with fragrances of tropical fruits, white flowers, and mineral notes. On the palate, it's fresh, smooth, and delicate, with a well-defined acidity and a very pleasant finish. Excellent for pairing with seafood, white fish, or rice dishes.
Bottle of wine / $310.000

Rosé Wines

CALVET ROSÉ D'ANJOU
